

Hot Watering Days

In our Las Vegas summers, dry and hot is very common. This of course, does not mean humidity at all. When handling your indoor plants, spraying them with a water bottle daily would be lovely for them. Your plants would truly love you. With dry indoor temperatures, this brings humidity to the plants and improves their growth/health.

-The Plant Lady