

Watering in the Summer-1

Written by Helen Melendez
Monday, 08 July 2013 22:12

Hot Summer Days

To over water or not? That is the question. Well, all will depend on the location of the plant. I have noticed with areas that are closer to a window, this causes the plants to dry out faster, especially if the sun faces those areas. Ventilation above a plant, also plants to dry out faster; this is whether is cooler or hotter air. If the plant is smaller, I have also noticed how the plant also dries out faster.

- The Plant Lady